Phil,

I ran into Chuck Scoville today and he gave me one of the Tillman t-shirts that you sent to him. Many thanks. Most of all, thank you for your care and concern for our nations heroes. I am humbled everyday by these brave men and women. What you are doing means so much. I cannot only say that as one who takes care of these fine human beings but as someone who has been over there. What you are doing here means so much to the soldiers on the ground. Keep a positive light shining on our soldiers.... here and there. I cannot thank you enough. It was a honor to meet you and your family. What you and your wife are teaching your children is immeasurable. If we could only teach such compassion and tenderness to all kids their age, we wouldn't have all of the problems that we have in this world. Thank you.

Respectfully,
Don.
