Dear Phil,

Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Recently a friend of mine met you on the street in NY and purchased a wristband for me to wear. You see, on September 11th, my brother Lt. Micheal Scott Lamana was killed in the pentagon. He was definitely a 110% military man. He loved his family and his country. Everyday, we miss his presence and life will never ever be the same again.

Somewhere along the way, someone had metal bands made for my family mimicking those of the MIA or POW (my brother wore one of each) with my brother's name and date of date. Up until now, all the bracelets I have seen at stores, etc. have not really meant anything. I will proudly wear this bracelet next to the one honoring my brother.

Again thank you for your efforts....

I would bet that those woman and men who receive your letters and bracelets would definitely classify you a hero.....

and I bet your children would too!

Sending best of luck,
Danielle Lamana

P.S. I will be purchasing more bracelets for my family.
